Western Union® Payment Services

Instructions to Deposit Money to a Detainees Phone Account

Paying for Phone calls: Payments can be made one of the following ways:

- At the kiosk in the lobby
- Online at www.gettingout.com
- Calling 1-866-348-6231

Prepaid

With a prepaid account, you can pay upfront and your loved one or friend can call until the money runs out. You can add more to the account at any time.

1. Detainee Account

Deposit the money into your loved one's or friend's account and they have the freedom to spend the money on phone calls or any other communications services available at their facility.

2. Friends & Family Account

With the Friends & Family Account, funds go into your account to pay for communication services such as phone calls, video visits and messaging. Your friend or loved one can only call the phone number you've specified.

Quick Connect

An alternative to collect calls. Quick connect allows you to quickly pay for a phone call with your credit card. Opting to accept a Quick Connect call is simple when your loved one or friend chooses to call you via Quick Connect.

When your loved one or friend calls you, simply follow the instructions from the automated system to pay for that one phone call on the spot. It's simple, easy, and instant!

Important Note: Additional fees, costs, restrictions and limitations may apply

Collect

Collect calls allow you to instantly accept and pay for calls to your land line phone account. This means that if you "accept" the collect call from your incarcerated loved one or friend, all the charges for that call will then be billed to your land line phone account and will show up and be listed on your next local phone bill.

Important Note: Additional fees, costs, restrictions and limitations may apply.

Please note that different phone companies handle collect calls differently and there may be additional fees, costs, restrictions and limitations regarding collect calls with your carrier. We strongly urge you to contact your local phone company to learn about collect calls before you accept any from your loved one or friend.

Visitation Frequently Asked Questions

Who can visit?

Family and friends, legal representatives, consular officials and others in the community. Visitors shall be screened and approved upon arrival and shall be required to adequately identify themselves and register to be admitted into a facility, so that safety, security and good order can be maintained.

A minor without positive identification may be admitted if the accompanying adult visitor vouches for his/her identity. Minors must remain under the direct supervision of an adult visitor so as not to disturb other visitors, and excessively disruptive conduct by minors may result in termination of the visit.

What type of identification do I need to be allowed into the facility? Valid government issued photo identification.

Will I be searched?

All visitors are subject to a personal search. You will be required to clear a metal detector and subject to a pat search if unable to clear the metal detector prior to visitation. Any person who refuses will not be permitted to visit.

What items am I allowed to bring to visitation?

Vehicle keys, currency $20 or less, baby items, when required for visitation ((1)bottle, formula, and (2) diapers and wipes). The following items are prohibited: Cell phone, electronics, lighters, tobacco products, weapons or explosives. Allowable items must be in a clear bag for search purposes.

Sanctions for Violation of Visitation and Contraband Rules

Any violation of the visitation rules by the detainee may result in disciplinary action against the detainee, including loss of visitation privileges, excluding legal and consular visits. Visiting privileges may be revoked only through the formal detainee disciplinary process. However, the facility administrator has the authority to restrict or suspend a detainee's ordinary visiting privileges temporarily when there is reasonable suspicion that the detainee has acted in a manner constituting a threat to the safety, security or good order of the facility. Each incident shall be documented, and the restriction or suspension shall be limited to the time required to investigate and complete the disciplinary process. Legal visitation shall be suspended only if necessary to maintain the safety or security of the facility. A visitor's failure to abide by visiting rules may result in immediate cancellation or termination of a visit and/or suspension of future visitation privileges. Introduction of contraband or other criminal violations may lead to criminal prosecution of a visitor, a detainee or both.

How long can I visit?

Visits are a minimum of 1 hour. During normal circumstances.

Where do I park when I arrive at the facility?

Facility parking lot.

What is the dress code for visitation?
